

Kolding

DESIGN, ART AND CULTURE

Beautifully located by the source of Kolding Fjord you will find Kolding. A lively town with a fascinating history and an active design, art and cultural life with galleries, museums as well as modern design schools, which definitely put a colorful mark on the town.

Koldinghus

In the middle of Kolding is the town's landmark – the beautifully restored Koldinghus, the original walls of which originate all the way from 1268.

The stunning and weathered buildings accommodate a museum, changing special exhibitions as well as an abundance of exciting possibilities for different meeting activities, dinners, parties or receptions. In the old supply cellar under the castle's north wing, Café Koldinghus offers good Danish food as well as unique party options for 10-80 persons.

Read more at www.koldinghus.dk

Trapholt

You will find one of Denmark's most exciting and modern museums for modern art and furniture art just a short walk from Hotel Koldingfjord. Many of the exhibitors are of international standard and the museum itself is an architectural gem.

Read more at www.trapholt.dk

Art and cultural experiences for groups:

- Art break at Trapholt
- Fencing course at Koldinghus
- Inspirational visit to Design School Kolding

The Danish Museum for Nursing History

Just a stone's throw from Hotel Koldingfjord is the Danish Museum for Nursing History. Delve down into an historical account from the time Hotel Koldingfjord functioned as a sanatorium for children with tuberculosis. The museum has changing special exhibitions and offers tailored introductions for groups.

Read more at www.dshm.dk

The Geographical Garden

The Geographical Garden is a 12 hectare, botanical garden where the geographic element relates to the trees, bushes and herbs planted according to country of origin. A fragrant, green oasis in the southern part of Kolding.

Read more at www.geografiskhave.dk